

Local artist, Christine French, picture here, with one of her glass pieces, is having an art show at the Grape Discovery Center. The Center is located at 8305 W. Route 20 in Westfield, New York. It is open daily Thursday - Saturday from 11-5. The show will be held on October 27, 28, and 29. Chris will be there from 2-4 each day, demonstrating how to paint black cats. Free art door prizes will be drawn daily. Her glass work, encaustics, photographs, baskets, sculptures, jewelry and cards will be for sale. Complimentary food and glasses of local wine will be available for purchase. Chris will donate 10% of all art work sold, to Orchard Beach Assembly in North East, Pa. If you have never been to the Grape Discovery Center, it is now time to explore it's exhibits during this show, to learn about the concord grape growing in the area.

